2. Old business

- Volunteer/Cleanup Day is weather dependent; Dale Wesselman will keep us apprised of course conditions
- The Pancake Breakfast and Golf Club Donation is scheduled Saturday, April 21, 8 a.m. to noon. Volunteers continue to be gathered and social media will continue to run the information. Posters are being distributed around the area.
- The Financial Committee has gathered data and prepared their questions. They are waiting for a meeting to be set up with the City.

3. New Business.

- President Stevens was interviewed by WDIO prior to the start of tonight's meeting. It will air Wednesday, April 11.
- There was no golf task force meeting last week to report on.

- The Marketing Committee continues to work with College of St Scholastica student Marjaana Dailey on the logo and website. Rob Lucas completed an interview with Almanac North, to be aired April 20th. Survey questions were finalized and will be put on the website. The City will also be doing a survey. Dues, donations and go fund me options were discussed. It was moved and seconded to have $10. membership dues established. The funds will be used to cover the 501c3 expenses incurred and continuing advertising costs during the year. Information will be placed on social media sites using a paypal account. Memberships will be tracked thru the website information.
  - The Lester Park Pancake Breakfast and Donation Day date was set for Saturday, May 19, 8am to noon. Same style posters will be used. Chris Manchester will coordinate the events.
  - Board Member Greg Swor is stepping down from the Board at this time. After discussion and a motion from the floor, Nate Bender was nominated and elected to the Board.
4. The next meeting will be held on Monday, April 23 at 5:30 p.m., Committees at 6:00 p.m., at Enger Park Clubhouse.
